

WHAT CONFERENCE HOSTS SAY ABOUT ROBERT MAZUR

Your fascinating presentation “Inside The infiltrator” was riveting, inspirational and informative. Not only did you enthrall us with your story, but you also successfully tied it back in with the work that our cybersecurity professionals do, to make it even more meaningful. Your presentation garnered rave reviews from attendees and, from the comments that we received, it clearly had a profound impact on them, both personally and professionally.

Thank you for being so pleasant and easy to work with. Your responsiveness was very much appreciated, as was your willingness to go above and beyond to make sure that all attendees who stood in line for over an hour (250 plus) got their book signed.

Robert Mazur is an outstanding opening keynote speaker. He truly captures the attention of an audience which in turn helps to set the tone of engagement for the rest of the event. Robert has spoken at several of our Annual Member Forums which bring together global law firm leaders, and Chief Legal Officers from The Fortune 500 and FTSE 100. He is very adaptable as a presenter and can speak on many topics whilst using his time in the underworld to tell a captivating story. He has helped our members to excel as exemplary strategic business leaders by teaching them the importance of negotiation and has provided them with the key skills required to build and develop their influence at the Board level which has empowered them as leaders. Robert has always stayed for the entire duration of our events (three days) and has always been more than happy to invest his own free time to engage with and answer our member's questions whether that is over breakfast, coffee or dinner. Robert is a wonderful and inspiring person and we absolutely loved having him speak at our events.

On behalf of Commonwealth Financial Network, I'd like to express my thanks for your incredibly engaging keynote presentation at our 2022 National Conference in San Diego, California. In my experience, Anti-Money Laundering presentations do not generate standing ovations, much less from a crowd of seasoned financial advisors who have come to view such sessions as canned and perfunctory affairs. That said, I was fortunate to witness our audience – over 2,000 – rise to their feet and acknowledge you with a nearly two-minute salute.

I have been curating the CLSA Forum for more than a decade and was delighted to have Mr. Mazur on board. Typically, we only invite people whose style we can preview online, but given the sensitive nature of his material, this was not an option. Glowing reviews from other sponsors swayed us, and the reaction from participants told us we made the right decision. A consummate professional, formidable presenter and respectful guest, Mr. Mazur is detail-oriented in content, delivery and logistics. He scores 10 out of 10 in my book.

I highly recommend Robert Mazur as a keynote speaker and presenter. His presentation to our audience was one of the best we ever had. There are very few people in the world like Robert and we are happy we had the opportunity to have him in Sweden for our Executive Days Conference where he thrilled the audience.

We were thrilled and honored to have Mr. Mazur give the keynote presentation at our Annual User Conference in Washington, DC. We highly recommend Mr. Mazur as a keynote speaker and presenter. He has experience and an industry perspective that is unparalleled; our customers and staff alike were fully engaged in his presentation. Mr. Mazur was able to provide invaluable and rare insights.

Robert Mazur was a featured keynote presenter at the Federal Bar Association (FBA) National Convention & Annual Meeting. We were thrilled and honored that Mr. Mazur was able to present for us. Mr. Mazur is not only one of the bravest and most accomplished undercover agents in the history of U.S. law enforcement, he is also a master storyteller. Even those of us who had seen the movie The Infiltrator, with Bryan Cranston playing Mr. Mazur, were constantly amazed throughout Mr. Mazur's presentation by the jaw-dropping moments he described about his undercover work embedded within the Medellin drug cartel.

Federal Bar Association

A fantastic presentation. Our survey of attendees scored Robert Mazur's presentation a 4.79 out of 5.0. Survey comments included, "Great event. Keynote speaker (Mazur) was amazing.", "Robert Mazur was engaging and provided a great high-level overview of how all this crazy money laundering was facilitated", and "This was a very eye-opening session? My favorite of the conference".

It was a pleasure working with you. Your patience and professionalism made what could have been a challenging situation, given that we originally agreed to do a face-to-face event in early 2020 and had to pivot to a webinar, straight forward and stress free. Your calm and methodical working style allowed us to get the most out of our conversations and ultimately out of the webinar.

The feedback, both from within and outside of the business for the webinar is that it was deeply thought provoking, engaging, and particularly empowering.....From a number point of view, it was our highest registered webinar of 2020 to date, with over 500 sign ups and of those that attended more than 95% listened intently for the full hour – a very high watermark for webinars.

Robert Mazur was easy to work with and provided an informative and unique presentation to our attendees. No other speaker has the knowledge, background, and storytelling ability that Bob has. At his suggestion, he tailored his presentation to topics that would appeal to our attendees and was open to any recommendations we had. Many attendees responded that his presentation was the highlight of the seminar, and from a planning committee perspective, he exceeded our lofty expectations. I am happy to recommend him to other organizations without reservation.

Mr. Robert Mazur was a keynote speaker at Compliance Week's first annual "Financial Crimes: Risks, Trends, and Proven Practices" conference, and by all accounts was the highlight of the event.

Mr. Mazur's presentation and passion for the subject matter demonstrated his dedication to public service extends beyond just infiltrating drug cartels, and includes sharing his knowledge to help others better do their jobs in fighting financial crime. His lessons learned were clearly presented and, behind the scenes, was easy to work with to boot. I'd highly recommend adding him to any conference or training session involving financial crime.

Compliance Week

Robert Mazur was engaged to present a 90-minute podcast to our staff in London, Jordan, Dubai, Kenya, Armenia, New Zealand, and the United States. Mr. Mazur offered insight about his role as a money launderer, working undercover for years within the underworld.....He warned our staff about certain geographic areas, business types, and product types that carry greater money laundering risk today, and explained why these emerging risks have become popular to launderers. After his presentation, Mr. Mazur answered our questions for more than 45 minutes. The feedback we received from participants was very positive. A large portion of our staff members considered the session fascinating.....Compliance staff were very interested in Mr. Mazur's insights about tracing funds.

Robert Mazur is an excellent speaker. I myself often speak at conferences and workshops in Luxembourg. Bob was certainly one of the best speakers we had, and he was able to convey a strong message in an interesting way.
